Dear Dr Ajay,

Greetings from ACRI!

Avigna Clinical Research Institute (ACRI) is one of the innovative and premier Clinical Research institutes in India, dedicated to providing quality education to bring out the finest and responsible clinical research professionals. ACRI's mission is to provide research driven Industry relevant quality education through comprehensive & integrated programs enhanced with technology and concerted interdisciplinary approach with a global reach.

ACRI's VISION is to be the first choice of students for skill education in Clinical Research and revolutionary learning. ACRI will be an essential contributor to quality education that meets the demand of the growing industry. We envision ACRI to play a pivotal role in adding value to academia by associating with esteemed institutes, such as yours, and provide an opportunity to students who would be keen to approach alternate career paths such as in the Clinical Research Industry.

Our primary objective is firstly to create awareness regarding Clinical Research & career paths in the same. Due to the ongoing pandemic, the clinical research industry appears to be thriving and it is the best time for students to be looking at this industry as a career path. To do so we would like to host a "FREE WEBINAR" exclusively for the students of your prestigious institute where our Experts will provide them with insightful information and interact with them in real time.

Kindly respond back to this mail with a convenient date and time to do so if you would be interested. The duration of the webinar is 1 Hour.

Please feel free to reach out to me for any further information or queries.
